Get basic coverage at no cost

Your employer is providing basic Long Term Disability Income Insurance at no cost to you. This means that if a disabling illness or injury prevents you from working, and your Short Term Disability coverage has run out, you'll still be able to replace a portion of your income.

Coverage Amount

60%

of your monthly earnings

(>$100 or 10% minimum monthly benefit/

$6,000 maximum monthly benefit)

Waiting period

Waiting period: 90 consecutive days within 180 calendar days.

Any days that you are able to work after the start of your disability will not count toward your waiting (elimination) period. You may be eligible for Short Term Disability payments during this time or you may use your available time off and/or sick time during this waiting period.

Evidence of Insurability (health questions)

You do not need to provide evidence of insurability to be covered.

How long benefit payments last

Long Term Disability Income benefits are available until you recover from your disability, or until you reach the maximum period of payment listed below.

SSNRA

For a disability which begins before you reach age 60, the maximum period of payment will be until the Social Security Normal Retirement Age (SSNRA), as shown in the following table:

Year of birth	Social Security retirement age (SSNRA)*
Before 1938	65 years
1938	65 years and 2 months
1939	65 years and 4 months
1940	65 years and 6 months
1941	65 years and 8 months
1942	65 years and 10 months
1943-1954	66 years

1955	66 years and 2 months
1956	66 years and 4 months
1957	66 years and 6 months
1958	66 years and 8 months
1959	66 years and 10 months
After 1959	67 years

For a disability which starts on or after you reach age 60, the maximum period of payment will be determined according to the following table:

Age when Disability begins	Maximum period of payment
60	60 months or to SSNRA*, whichever is greater
61	48 months or to SSNRA*, whichever is greater
62	42 months or to SSNRA*, whichever is greater
63	36 months or to SSNRA*, whichever is greater
64	30 months or to SSNRA*, whichever is greater
65	24 months
66	21 months
67	18 months
68	15 months
69 and over	12 months

*Age at which you are entitled to unreduced Social Security benefits based on the Social Security Amendments of 1983.

Exclusions & Limitations

Benefits are not payable if your disability is caused by, contributed to or resulting from:

- Loss of a professional or occupational license or certification
- Commission of or attempt to commit a felony

- Intentionally self-inflicted injuries
- Attempted suicide, regardless of mental capacity
- Being legally intoxicated or being under the influence of any narcotic, unless taken under the direction of and as directed by a doctor
- Participation in a war, declared or undeclared, or any act of war
- Active military duty
- Active participation in a riot
- Engaging in any illegal or fraudulent occupation, work or employment

Pre-existing conditions: A pre-existing condition is a sickness, injury or physical condition that led to medical treatment, consultation, care or services (including diagnostic measures) during the 3 month period before your coverage effective date. Benefits are not payable if your disability begins in the first 12 months after your coverage effective date, and your disability is caused by, contributed by, or the result of a pre-existing condition.

Your benefits may be limited to a shorter time period, such as 24 months during your lifetime, if:

- The disability is due to a mental illness, alcoholism or drug abuse.
- The disability is due to a special condition as defined in the certificate, such as fibromyalgia or chronic fatigue syndrome.

Your benefits will be reduced by other income (deductible sources of income) you are eligible to receive while disabled. These include but aren't limited to:

- Income received from any form of employment
- Unemployment benefits and any type of income replacement provided by your employer
- Workers' Compensation benefits or benefits from similar programs
- Judgments or settlements you receive related to disability
- Disability or retirement payments under Social Security or other federal and state plans
- Disability income payments under automobile liability insurance benefits
- Disability income payments payable under any other group insurance policy and certain retirement payments provided under your employer's retirement plan

*Limitations and exclusions will vary by state and by your employer's benefit plan.
