

NEW FUNDRAISING GIVING CAMPAIGNS

Big Brothers Big Sisters:

Big Brothers Big Sisters develops positive mentoring relationships between adult volunteers ("Bigs") and children ("Littles") that have a direct and lasting effect on the lives of young people

The Brighton Center:

The Brighton Center partners with individuals and families to help them reach financial stability and independence through youth services, workforce services, financial services, early childhood education, family services, social enterprises, women's recovery services, senior services, housing, and emergency services

Upspring:

As the region's only non-profit exclusively serving the educational needs of children and youth experiencing homelessness, Upspring provides these students with the consistency needed to achieve academic success and become well-rounded, active participants in their community.

Lighthouse Youth & Family Services:

Lighthouse offers an integrated system of care for ages 0-24 designed to guide and track their progress over time. This includes mental and behavioral health services, youth housing, emergency shelter, community juvenile justice services, residential treatment, and foster care and adoption.

SAAP:

Stray Animal Adoption Program (SAAP) is an all-volunteer, non-profit organization that exists to rescue, protect, and provide care for at risk pets. We promote lifelong adoptions while focusing on spay/neuter and the education of animal welfare.
